FOA representative justified $3 million Libyan item to appropriate Congressional committees during hearings which were held same time as United States-Libyan July negotiations, as part of United States effort obtain base agreement. Short of compelling reasons for considering exception to world-wide procedure, FOA intends however retain $3 million Washington available for expenditure on agreed projects for supplies, equipment and personal services under regular FOA obligation procedures in connection with projects agreed to by the Joint Commission. USOM/L familiar these procedures as outlined "Operation Blueprint" documentation.
